

Tree-Planting Ceremony Highlights 186th St. PTA Founders' Day Celebration

Comparing the growth of a small tree to the growth of the present Parent-Teacher Association from the time of its founding, Mrs. Leo Wagner presented a Liquidambar tree to 186th St. School on behalf of the PTA at last week's Wednesday Founders' Day meeting.

Miss Hilda Jellison, principal, accepted the gift for the faculty, while Irma Martinez, A-8 student, accepted for the student body.

Also highlighting the program was the presentation of an honorary life membership to Mrs. Harold Sprankle for her outstanding work in the PTA. Mrs. Samuel Dow, past president and present parliamentarian, gave the award.

Other honored guests of the day were past presidents, Mesdames Wagner, Clifford Bennett,

W. Sutherland, W. D. Ten Eyck, James Gauley, Dow, Wilbur Early, and Claud Hill.

David Fordham, faculty member, completed the program with a talk on "Cooperation."

During the business session, Mrs. Dow was elected chairman of a nominating committee. Chosen to assist her were Mesdames W. C. Attebery, A. R. Pond, Oliver Lang, and Miss Jellison.

Torrance PTA Presents Life Award Tonight

Highlighting tonight's Torrance Elementary PTA Founders' Day program will be the awarding of an honorary life membership to some local citizen for his or her meritorious service in the field of child welfare.

To begin at 7:30 o'clock at the school auditorium, the program also will feature special recognition for all past presidents of the Association.

A film, "Helping Your Child To Read" will complete the evening entertainment.

The refreshment hour following the meeting, serving as hostesses were Mesdames David Wood Phillip Donaher, Harold Sprankle, and R. Hight.

NEW MR. AND MRS. . . . Shown leaving the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church following wedding ceremonies on Valentine's Day are Mr. and Mrs. George S. Winters, nee Miss Lovey Bradstreet. The couple are now honeymooning in Las Vegas and are expected to return to Torrance this weekend. They will make their home at 1243 Cabrillo Ave.

George Winters, Valentine Bride Plan To Return From Honeymoon on Weekend

Expected to return to Torrance this weekend from a honeymoon journey at Las Vegas are the new Mr. and Mrs. George S. Winters, nee Lovey Bradstreet.

The newlyweds, who exchanged vows at ceremonies in Central Evangelical United Brethren Church on Valentine's Day, will make their home at 1243 Cabrillo Ave.

The Rev. Homer Miller performed the 1 p.m. rites uniting the pair following vocal solos "Because," "Always" and "Ave Maria," sung by Mrs. Nadine Nikol to organ accompaniment played by Mrs. Hilda Findley.

Highlighting the white satin gown chosen by the bride was a bodice panel of Chantilly lace which matched the edging on her nylon tulle, fingertip-length veil. The veil was held in place by a small white satin cap outlined in seed pearls.

A cascade bouquet of hyacinths and gardenias, centered with a single golden-throated orchid completed her costume. She was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Wilford H. Tidland.

Carrying the bride's bouquet in miniature and gowned in white net over taffeta, Mary Margaret Cunningham attended as junior bridesmaid. Misses Chris Mosher and Patsy Tucker were bridesmaids in emerald green net over taffeta complemented by Colonial bouquets of spring flowers with accents of wedgewood blue.

American Beauty net over taffeta formed the costume of Miss Alice Gargalis, chosen as maid of honor. She carried a Colonial

Local Y Plans Dinner for Y-Teen Officer Trainees

Torrance YWCA will be in charge of the dinner for officers training for Y-teens, to be held tonight at the San Pedro YWCA, 437 W. Ninth St., San Pedro.

Approximately 35 girls from this area will be participating in the district-wide event.

One of the program features will be a panel on the values of the Asilomar Leadership Training conference, to be presented by girls who have attended the session, Betty Gylenskog, moderator; Connie Walton, Betty Mosley, Lucy Shirley, and Joanne Radulovich.

As an innovation in the training sessions for officers, experienced girls, assisted by adult resource people, will be in charge.

Shirley York will be in charge of the presidents' group, with Gylenskog and Jackie Blagatch assisting. Mrs. Joseph Lukes, Torrance branch director, will be resource leader for this group.

The vice-presidents will be led by Madelyn Maddock and Winnie Karmelich, with the assistance of resource leader Marilyn Esslinger, teen-age director in San Pedro.

Joanne Radulovich and Betty Mosley will head the secretaries' session, while the publicists will lead treasurers' training with Betty Gordon, Y-teen advisor, as resource director.

With the assistance of Connie Walton and Jean Westfall as resource leaders, Patti Swenson will direct the chaplain's group. Barbara Robertson will be in charge of the publicity section with Mrs. Otis S. Blackstone, public relations director, as resource director.

Miss Reddick will preside over the meeting as mistress of ceremonies while girls from a San Pedro club will serve as hostesses.

Mosher as ushers and Johnny Keith Jr. as candlelighter.

Assisting the new Mr. and Mrs. in greeting guests at a reception in the Guild Hall were the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilford H. Tidland, and the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Winters, 1204 Cota Ave.

The former Miss Bradstreet, who made her home at 1417 Cota Ave., is a graduate of Petaluma High School and Wayne University in Detroit. Her husband, a graduate of Torrance High School, received his bachelor's degree in criminology from Fresno State College following a two-year course at Compton Junior College.

FIRST AID CLASS TO BEGIN TUESDAY

Beginning next Tuesday, Feb. 24, an advanced first aid class will be conducted for two weeks at the Red Cross Building, 1754 Torrance Blvd., announced Mrs. Meade Ferguson, first aid instructor for the local Red Cross branch.

Instruction will be held each Tuesday and Friday evening from 7 to 10 p.m. Those completing the course will receive a certificate from the Red Cross.

Anyone interested may enroll by calling the Red Cross office, 3447, or Mrs. Ferguson at Lomita 1650-W.
